Report: Pedals, Pipes & Pizza 2014

On Saturday, March 29, three young pianists had the opportunity to meet the King of Instruments, the pipe organ! This event, entitled Pedals, Pipes & Pizza 2014, was sponsored by the Association of Church Musicians/Madison chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Pedals, Pipes & Pizza 2014 began at 9:00 a.m. at First Congregational United Church of Christ, 1609 University Avenue, Madison. The opening session, led by ACM/AGO member John Krueger, featured a video from the American Guild of Organists entitled Pulling Out All the Stops. Then students were able to see, hear, and play the three-manual Holtkamp pipe organ, installed in 1980. Our host was ACM/AGO member and Director of Music, Don DeBruin. Don even took us through the attic of the church and to see the echo division of an earlier pipe organ which had been installed above the ceiling of the nave.

After lunch at Extreme Pizza on Monroe Street, we walked to St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1833 Regent Street, Madison. Students then had the opportunity to see, hear, and play the Taylor & Boody two-manual pipe organ, installed in 2000. Talk about up close and personal! ACM/AGO member Ken Stancer, Director of Music at St. Andrew's, was our host. We then travelled to St. James Catholic Church, 1128 St. James Court, Madison and had the opportunity to see, hear, and play the Wadsworth three-manual pipe organ, originally built in 1863. Our host was ACM/AGO member and Director of Music, Mark Miller. We experienced a mighty sound in a reverberant room.

Enthusiasm was high throughout the day and students, though few in number, were totally engaged, asked many questions, and had a great time playing the three pipe organs. Parents and a grandparent who accompanied us had the opportunity to ask questions as well. Many thanks to our hosts, Don, Ken, and Mark, for their excellent help and to each of the three congregations for allowing us to visit. (see page five of this newsletter for additional photos).

AGO Membership for 2014-2015 & ONCARD

The American Guild of Organists is implementing a new method of dues payment beginning with the 2014/2015 membership year. Information about the new system, entitled ONCARD, as well as reasons for it, can be found in the May, 2014, issue of The American Organist.

In short, the new system reverses the direction of payment of AGO dues. All dues, both the "national" and "local" or "chapter," can be paid by credit card to the national office. The national office will then send the local/chapter portion back to the chapter by direct deposit to the chapter's bank account. Up to this time chapters had collected all dues and forwarded the national portion to AGO headquarters.

The Association of Church Musicians has member churches as well as individual members not associated with a church. The dues for the Association of Church Musicians as a church membership substitutes for the "local" portion of the AGO dues and allows churches to list more people than one as members of ACM. (The current membership form allows for five names.) If a church has an AGO member, the Association of Church Musicians then also collects the "national" portion of the dues and forwards it, along with required membership data, to AGO headquarters. Approximately 33% of the churches currently in the Association of Church Musicians have no one who is a member of the AGO.

Because our setup is different from that of the most AGO chapters, the ONCARD system will not work for us and we are not, at present, required to subscribe to it. For the coming year, all members of the Madison Chapter of the American Guild of Organists should submit all dues, as in years past, to the Association of Church Musicians.
